MOVE BY ALLIES TO TRY KAISER WILSON TO MAKE PUBLIC ALL HIS PLANS

COMMITTEE OF 1,000 TO PLAN GREAT WELCOME FOR 27TH, ON WAY HOME FROM FRANCE

Mayor Says He Will Name Big Body to Arrange Reception for O'Ryan's Men.

ONLY AMERICAN FLAGS.

Fifth Avenue to Be Highway of Stars and Stripes—Victory Arch to Be Ready.

Mayor A. Whalen, Secretary to Mayor Hylan, announced to-day that the Mayor will appoint a committee of one thousand citizens who will arrange for receptions of homecoming New York troops.

The 27th Division, composed of the former National Guard of the State under command of Major Gen. John F. O'Ryan, will, according to despatches received from American Army headquarters, embark for this country in a few days.

As soon as the Mayor's office receives official information from Washington regarding its arrival here, it will make public announcement of the plans.

The Mayor's committee will aim to make the celebrations and the welcome the most memorable in the history of the city. Because of the magnitude of the undertaking it has been decided to divide the committees into six sections as follows: reception, military, naval, pageant, banquet and publicity.

A committee of architects will have charge of the decorative designs along Fifth Avenue from Washington Square to about 72d Street.

"It is Mayor Hylan's plan to have Fifth Avenue converted into an Avenue of the Stars and Stripes," explained Mr. Whalen, "that is, no other flags but the Stars and Stripes will be displayed when the first victorious contingent, consisting of New York troops, pass along on their final victory march. This being a strictly American celebration the Mayor is of the opinion that all the sentiments of the day marking the return of the New York warriors should be concentrated entirely in the flag they fought for."

"The present plan is to drape four flags on each lamp post. In addition, all buildings on the avenue will be requested to display the national emblem."

"The Edison Company has donated amber globes for the street lamps, and in addition has made the city gifts of 750-watt lamps for the occasion."

"There is to be a massive memorial-victory arch at Madison Square.
If there is time this arch will be of plaster. If not it will be constructed

ENRIGHT THREATENS MACHINE GUNS FOR RITIOUS SOLDIERS

Commissioner's Complaint Causes Hylan to Ask Aid of Federal Authorities.

As the result of a complaint from Police Commissioner Enright in which lawlessness of soldiers and sailors at Socialist meetings in Madison Square and the Palm Garden are alleged, Mayor Hylan to-day sent written complaints to Secretary of War Baker, Secretary of the Navy Daniels, Major Gen. J. F. Bell, Commander of the Department of the East, and Admiral Usher, Commander of the Third Naval District.

In his letter to the Mayor, Police Commissioner Enright tells of two encounters between police and men in the United States service and makes this threat:

"The last two encounters we have had with them invited the same rigorous measures that are demanded in dealing with lawless and riotous elements, whatever their character, and if the use of night sticks, revolvers, or perhaps even machine guns, is necessary to preserve the public peace, the police will be compelled to employ them."

The Mayor's letter to the Federal authorities is in part as follows:

"I am enclosing herewith copy of letter which I received this morning from the Police Commissioner in reference to the recent conduct of soldiers and sailors on the streets of New York."

"Unfortunately, the soldiers and sailors assume that while they are in uniform they are privileged to conduct themselves as they please. It has become necessary for me to issue orders to the police to accord the same treatment to the men in uniform as to citizens when they become disorderly and incite riots."

"Appeal to the Federal authorities to make immediate arrangements whereby the soldiers and sailors are kept under their control while they are in uniform and until they are discharged from the army and navy."

Mayor Hylan in a letter to Commissioner Enright said:

"Law and order must be maintained in this city, and I direct you that until the Federal authorities make provision for caring for the men in uniform who act in a disorderly manner and incite riots that the same treatment be accorded them as is accorded to every other person guilty of disorderly conduct and unlawful acts."

Recommendations that all revolutionary meetings and parades be prohibited in Greater New York were presented to Assistant District Attorney Alex I. Rorke, who had been assigned to investigate the riots at Madison Square and the Palm Garden.

Rorke's report said that the two meetings at which disorder had occurred were held by the radical wing of the Socialists of America, who, he said, not only were opposed to the present form of government under which they live, but were "in sympathy with the Bolsheviks in Europe, who are fighting the Socialists should voluntarily abandon the holding of such gatherings in the interest of law and order."

TATTOOED WOMAN SOUGHT BY POLICE IN TRUNK MURDER

Brooklyn Rooming House Proprietor Gives Clue That May Clear Mystery.

A woman tattooed with a dagger through a heart on her right arm and the words "Death before dishonor" on her left, was sought by the police today because they believe that through her they may find the solution of New York's newest murder mystery.

The name of the tattooed woman, Sarah Banta, was scrawled in pencil on a trunk in which was found at 11:40 o'clock last night the body of Joseph Ballaro, proprietor of the United Shoe Repairing Company, No.
220 Fulton Street, Brooklyn, where he did a business amounting sometimes to $100 a day, employing five helpers.

He was last seen alive at 8 o'clock last night in a Brooklyn rooming house conducted by Mrs. Marion Tharau, No. 68 Cranberry Street. Between that hour and midnight he was killed, packed in the trunk and conveyed to the corner of Mot and Grand Streets, Manhattan.

He had rented a room from Mrs.
Tharau in the afternoon for himself and wife. But it was a man who went there with him last night, and the same man appeared again this morning, accompanied by a woman, apparently Italian. The man and woman were denied admittance and they have since disappeared.

Dr. Benjamin Schwartz, city medical examiner, performed an autopsy and declared that death had been caused by a heavy blow on the left side below the ribs, a blow which, while it left only a slight external mark, had caused a mortal internal hemorrhage.

STORY TOLD POLICE BY ROOM-ING HOUSE PROPRIETOR.

Ballaro apparently had arranged a rendezvous with a woman last night, but it was a man that he met. This meeting, and also all the information the police have obtained concerning the tattooed woman, are parts of an account given by Mrs. Marion Tharau, proprietor of the Cranberry Street

MARINE STOCK SOARS AS U. S. PLANS SHIP PURCHASE

Preferred Gains 16 Points at One Time, Closing 10 points Up—Directors Tell of Deal.

An old-fashioned "bear panic" market for International Mercantile Marine stock set in on the floor of the Stock Exchange to-day. Influenced by news that the Government had offered to buy the company's ships, which it had been planned to sell to British interests, shorts rushed to cover, and there was an avalanche of new buying.

Opening sales in Marine preferred ranged from 112 to 116, the higher figures representing a net gain of 16 points from yesterday's close, which was 100 1/2.
There was a slight easing off during the morning, but about noon a new spurt set in on word from Washington that the British Government would not interfere with the American plans, and the stock shot up to 119 1/2, a gain of almost 10 points from first night. There was another easing off near the close and final sales were at 114 1/2.

Following a meeting of the board of directors of the International Mercantile Marine, the following statement was given out this afternoon at the office of the corporation:

"We have been advised that the Government is prepared to take over the ownership of the vessels of the International Mercantile Marine Company upon the terms of the British offer and the details are to be worked out."

HOLLAND WARNS THE KAISER TO KEEP QUIET OR BE EXPELLED

FULL STATEMENT BY WILSON OF HIS PLANS WHILE ABROAD TO BE MADE BEFORE SAILING

Will Exercise All His Executive Functions, Leaving Tumulty to Assist.

TO NAME DELEGATES.

Time of Sailing Will Depend on the Action of Congress.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27.—Before leaving for France President Wilson will make a full statement to the country as to his purposes in going and outline the work of the Administration while he is away.

It was learned to-day the President's statement will designate the delegates comprising the American Peace Commission, what this nation hopes to do at the conference and who will direct the administrative work while the President and other members of his Cabinet are away.

Four of the Peace Commissioners have been definitely designated, it was authoritatively stated to-day. These are the President, Col. House, Secretary Lansing and former Ambassador Henry White, the Republican representative.

There probably will be another Cabinet member, Secretary Baker, who was to have gone, finds he is unable to leave now owing to the presentation of the new Army bill at the forthcoming Congress. Apparently the President has not decided whether Secretary Daniels or Houston will take Baker's place. If there are to be any beyond the five, it was not indicated by officials close to the President to-day.

President Wilson, it was stated positively, will exercise all of his executive functions personally, during his absence, leaving Secretary Tumulty on this side to assist him in keeping in touch with developments.

Either simultaneously with his main announcement or at approximately the same time, the President will name the two men he desires to take up the posts of Secretary of the Treasury and Director General of Railroads, left vacant by the resignation of William G. McAdoo. He will confer with McAdoo Friday relative to these two appointments.

Representatives of the press associations will probably accompany the President of the George Washington.
Other newsmen will sail on a separate vessel, before the main party starts.

The date of the President's sailing will depend upon Congress. He hopes that both houses will assemble promptly next Monday so that he can deliver his annual message on that day. He is now working on it and will leave for France as soon after its delivery as possible—probably the next day, Dec. 2.

BARUCH OFFERED TREASURY POST BUT MAY DECLINE

Said to Hesitate at Entering Cabinet in McAdoo's Place Because of His Wealth.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27 (Associated Press).—Bernard M. Baruch, Chairman of the War Industries Board, it was understood to-day, has been offered the post of Secretary of the Treasury, to succeed Secretary McAdoo.

Whether he will be nominated is an open question. Without actually declining to serve, it is said Mr. Baruch has urged upon the President strongly his belief that he should not enter the Cabinet, on the ground that his wealth, largely in Government and other securities, would be seriously embarrassing.

Ill health of Representative Carter Glass, Chairman of the House Banking and Currency Committee, who also has been mentioned for the office, is said to have been influential in determining the President to ask Mr.
Baruch to put aside his known objections.

For Director General of Railroads to succeed Mr. McAdoo, Charles A.
Prouty, now Director of the Railroad Administration's Division of Public Service and Accounts, is believed to be one under consideration. Mr.
Prouty formerly was director of valuation work for the Interstate Commerce Commission and also served as member of the Commission.

GERMANS SURRENDER 27 MORE SUBMARINES

Number of U Boats Turned Over to Allies So Far Totals 114.

HARWICH, England, Nov. 27.—Twenty-seven German submarines were surrendered to-day to the Allies. This brings the total of German U boats turned over to 114.

BURNS CALLED IN COAL QUIZ.

New York Dealer Ordered to Turn Books to Senate Committee.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27.—Michael Burns of Burns Brothers, New York coal distributors, has been summoned to come to Washington to appear before the Senate Coal Committee with the books of his concern.

RECORDS FIGHTING FORCE.
Burns' sons' statement is a pure, unadorned and true. He declared that—Ad.

British Foreign Office Confirms Re- port That It Is Co-operating With French Authorities on Question of His Extradition for Trial.

LONDON, Nov. 27.—The Foreign Office confirms the report that British Law Officers of the Crown, in co-operation with the French authorities, are considering the question of the extradition of the former German Emperor. The Foreign Office says that the Law Officers have not yet made a report and consequently no action has been taken.

"Count" Hohenzollern will have to leave Holland if his presence there becomes perilous to that country, Premier Raaja de Beerenbrock is quoted by the Amsterdam correspondent of the Daily Express as declaring in the second chamber of the Dutch Parliament on Nov. 20.

"The Kaiser is in Holland as a private person," said the Premier, as quoted by the correspondent. "The hospitality of the country is extended him in accordance with a centuries-old tradition. But it goes without saying that the moment his sojourn becomes a danger to the state he will have to leave. We believe the Kaiser and those with him understand the position and will act according to their interests."

The Dutch Government is understood to maintain that the ex-Kaiser can only be extradited by Germany, or, if his fate is decided at the peace conference, he will then be given up in accordance with such decision, inasmuch as Germany will be represented.

The reason the unwelcome guest is on their hands, the Dutch say, is only that Holland is the nearest neutral point to Spa, from which his flight began. Otherwise, he might have gone to Scandinavia or Switzerland.
Holland's precautions against any plotting are known to include a cordon of troops around Amerongen Castle. The former Emperor is not permitted to cross the moat. The country around the castle is low and generally unattractive.

The ex-Kaiser, it is reported, constantly displays irritation and impatience, while the Dutch mostly are frankly contemptuous because he failed to face the music.

FORTY-SIX U BOATS SUNK OR DAMAGED BY AMERICANS; ASTOR'S YACHT IN BATTLE

New York Millionaire Served on the Noma as Ensign of Reserves—Four Other Yachts Aided.

LONDON, Nov. 27 (United Press).—American naval forces engaged in 500 battles with submarines, it was officially announced to-day.
Ten U boats were sunk by them and thirty-six others damaged.

Participating in the sinkings were the destroyers Fanning, Nicholson and Tucker, the armed yachts Lydenia, Wakiya, Kanawha II, Noma and Christobel, the submarine chasers No. 215, No. 129, No. 128, No. 95, No.
179 and No. 339, and the submarine AL-2.

The yacht Noma is the property of Vincent Astor, and the young millionaire was serving on her as an ensign of reserves. The announcement of the sinking by an American submarine is one of the few occurrences of its kind on record.

FORMER CROWN PRINCE HOPES AMERICA WILL REMEMBER SHE WAS ONCE FRIENDLY TO GERMANY

"My Future Rests With the Revolution," He Says in an Interview—Hopes to See Germany Again, but Must Be Patient.

AMSTERDAM, Nov. 21.—"I hope that when peace is signed, America will remember that she and Germany were once friendly," Friedrich "Wulff" said.
